NOTICE

This is to inform all students and faculty members that the Library of Sikkim National Law University (SNLU) has subscribed to various online academic e-resources, including SCC Online, EBC Reader, and Supreme AI, to facilitate access to legal databases, research materials, case laws, and other academic resources.

The library has also made available a Remote Access Facility, enabling users to access these subscribed e-resources from outside the University campus.

In this regard, all students and faculty members are kindly requested to avail themselves of these facilities by registering on the library's online portal through the link provided below:

Registration Link:
https://sikkimnlu.knimbus.com/portal/v2/default/login

All concerned are encouraged to register themselves and make effective use of these valuable academic resources for their teaching, learning, and research activities.

In case of any difficulty or assistance required during the registration process, you may kindly contact the Assistant Librarian, Sikkim National Law University.

Your active participation in utilising these resources is highly encouraged.
